PART II TEACHING PLAN Introduction

ATTENTION: Today marks a milestone in your progression within the program. What you do today will allow you, in time, to move up in grade and allow you to accept more responsibility.

MOTIVATION: Do you, as an individual, believe that you are sufficiently knowledgeable to perform all that has been taught in these past several drill sessions?

OVERVIEW: What we will do today, during this period, is review verbally and by practical application all those movements you have learned thus far. In the next period today, you will be tested in all phases of the Curry Achievement; your book learning and the practical phases that you have willingly undergone over the past eight weeks.

TRANSITION: ARE YOU READY?

Body
